

1. INTRODUCTION	15
1.1 Historic background: Mozambique and South Africa	15
1.1.1 Mozambique	15
1.1.2 South Africa	16
1.2 Rationale	16
1.1 Project definition of trafficking body parts	19
1.1.1 Trafficking in persons	19
1.1.1 Trafficking body parts	20
1.1.2 Project Definition of trafficking body parts	20
2. METHODOLOGY	21
2.1 Field work	22
2.2 Reliability and validity of the interviews	23
2.3 Ethical Protocol	24
3. INTERVIEW SAMPLES AND FINDINGS	25
3.1 Sampling	25
3.2 Findings	27
3.3 Incidence and prevalence of trafficking body parts in Mozambique and South Africa	42
3.3.1 Incidence	42
3.3.2 Increase in incidents relating to trafficking body parts	48
3.3.3 Prevalence	50
4. FACTORS THAT CONTRIBUTE TO TRAFFICKING BODY PARTS	52
4.1 Social Factors	52
4.2 Economical Factors	53
4.3 Cultural and psychological factors	54
5. SOCIAL PERCEPTIONS ON THE BELIEF IN THE EFFECTIVENESS OF USING HUMAN BODY PARTS IN TRADITIONAL MEDICINE	57
6. CONFESSIONS	60
7. THE ROLE OF THE TRADITIONAL HEALER AND SO-CALLED WITCHDOCTOR IN ISSUES RELATING TO TRAFFICKING BODY PARTS	69
8. THE SOCIAL IMPACT OF TRAFFICKING BODY PARTS	71
8.1 Communities	71
8.2 Surviving victims	72
9. EXISTING POLICIES AND PROGRAMMES TO COUNTER TRAFFICKING BODY PARTS	74
9.1. Mozambique	75
9.2 South Africa	76
9.3 The authorities' response	78
9.4 Police recording and reporting on issues relating to trafficking body parts	79
9.5 The capacity of the authorities	80
9.6 Communities response: taking the law into their own hands	81
9.7 Media Coverage	81
10. CONCLUSIONS	83
11. RECOMMENDATIONS	85
11.1 State actors	85
11.2 Non-state actors	86
11.2.1 Civil society (NGOs and CBOs)	86
11.2.2 Media	86
11.3 Partners of Cooperation	86
12. BIBLIOGRAPHY	87